Rising Fifth Grade Summer Reading Assignment

All students are to read The Last Battle by C. S. Lewis. Upon completion of the book, students should select one of the following activities to complete.

Activities relating to The Last Battle:

- Create a diorama depicting your favorite part of the book. Be sure to explain your choice by writing an explanation for the viewer.
- Use your creativity to compare The Last Battle to the book of Revelation in the Bible.
- Consider the entire Chronicles of Narnia and write a paper to explain the meaning of the title, The Last Battle.
- Make a time line of all the events in the book, The Last Battle. This should be a colorful project which includes drawings.

Additionally, students should choose one of the following books to read:

- A Long Walk to Water by Linda Sue Park
- Banner in the Sky by James Ramsey Ullman
- Tuck Everlasting by Natalie Babbitt
- Mr. Popper's Penguins by Richard and Florence Atwater
- Gentle Ben by Walt Morey
- Dipper of Copper Creek by John and Jean George
- any L. M. Montgomery book not yet read

After reading their book of choice, students are to make a bookmark for the book, drawing a character on the front and writing 3-5 sentences about their favorite part of the book on the back after listing the title and the author.

Teachers will advise the students when these activities are due during the first week of school.
